

South, West & Wales
Doctoral Training
Partnership

Memory Studies
Research Cluster

Work-in-progress lunchtime seminar series

2021-22 Programme

Meetings will be held online via zoom, and everyone is welcome to attend. The link for every meeting is:

<https://Universityofexeter.zoom.us/j/92796491907?pwd=Tm4lY2g3RFVXWTNyRThhOU9MeHdmZz09>

10th November 2021, 1-2pm

'Conquest by Cattle'

Felix Sadebeck, University of Exeter

'Archive and Poetry before Holocaust' (TBC)

Biljana Markovic, University of Vienna

'Feminist Perspectives on Kurdish Cinema, Memory and Resistance'

Tebessüm Yilmaz-Wilke, Humboldt University of Berlin

8th December 2021, 1-2pm

'Imperial Nostalgia' (TBC)

Amy Shakespeare, University of Exeter

'(Re-)Narration of the National Memory: Mythopoesis of Conservative Populists'

Polina Zavershinskaia, University of Leipzig

12th January 2022, 1-2pm

Roundtable: Religion and Memory

Sandy Gale (University of Bristol), Alexander Hainy-Khaleeli (University of Exeter), Isabelle Mutton (University of Exeter), Iona Ramsay (University of Exeter)

9th February 2022, 1-2pm

'The Indian Legion in Germany (1941-45)' (TBC)
Ishudhi Rawat, University of Bristol

'Memory and the Telegram' (TBC)
Megan Furr, University of Exeter

'Material Remnants of Francoism in the "Old City of Salamanca" World Heritage Site'
Lee Purvis, Queen's University Belfast

9th March 2022, 1-2pm – More speakers TBC

'Green Memories of early modern London – John Stow, the proto-environmentalist'
Kerstin Grunwald-Hope, Bath Spa University

13th April 2022, 1-2pm – Speakers TBC

11th May 2022, 1-2pm – Speakers TBC

We are still looking for people to present! If you would like to contribute, please send an email to ir299@exeter.ac.uk giving a title (no abstract needed) and stating which date(s) you would prefer.